GREAT IS THY FAITHFULNESS

Great is Thy faithfulness, O God my Father;
There is no shadow of turning with Thee;
Thou changest not, Thy compassions, they fail not;
As Thou hast been, Thou forever will be.

Refrain:
Great is Thy faithfulness! Great is Thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see;
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided—
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me!

Summer and winter and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon and stars in their courses above
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth
Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!
MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to Spring Commencement at Biola University, and congratulations to all of our graduates for a job well done. This day represents the culmination of years of hard work and perseverance in the area of study to which the Lord has called you. I trust you have been equipped in mind and character to impact the world for our Lord Jesus Christ. May the relationships that have been formed, the wisdom you have gained and the knowledge that has been imparted stand you in good stead in the years ahead. Each one of you has been a special gift of God to Biola University and our prayers go with you as you take this important step in your journey.

Barry H. Corey
President

MESSAGE FROM THE
PROVOST & SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

It is an honor to congratulate you, the graduating class, and to present you to President Corey for the awarding of degrees. This ceremony marks a significant achievement in your lives. You have studied. You have grown. You have overcome adversity. There were times, I am certain, when you wondered if it was worth it and if you would be able to manage. Yet here you are. Your walk with God and understanding of His kingdom has matured just as your awareness of yourself and God’s call on your life has deepened.

Today is a day to celebrate all that you have accomplished. It is a day to say thank you to the friends, staff, faculty and family who have prayed for you and walked with you along the way. It is also a day to give thanks to God, the author of life and the giver of every good and perfect gift. May your life continue to resonate with the life of Christ as this marvelous journey of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus unfolds before you. Continue to grow in patterns of heart, and of thought, and of action that are the markers of a life hidden in God.

May the peace and presence of Christ attend you. Congratulations to you on this day.

David P. Nystrom
Provost & Senior Vice President
COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER
LIBBY LITTLE

Libby and her late husband, optometrist Dr. Tom Little, served in Afghanistan for over 30 years. Together they provided medical care for, and shared the love of Christ with, the villagers of rural Afghanistan. In August 2010, Dr. Little and his medical team of 10 were ambushed on their journey back to Kabul and were killed after conducting a two-week mobile clinic to remote valleys of Nuristan. It was said that the medical team had hiked over mountains for more than 10 hours that day, unarmored and without the comfort of security. The team’s mission was only to reach isolated Afghan villagers to bring them the medical care they needed. Along with the doctors and nurses who were a part of the mission, Dr. Little had much to offer the unhealthy and visually impaired among the villagers. In working in Afghanistan for over 30 years, Dr. Little also spoke fluent Dari, and was the supervisor of a network of IAM eye hospitals nationwide. Having ample experience in optometry, he offered eye care and surgical services in places where the luxury of having health care is scarce to non-existent. Dr. Little is remembered by his family—wife Libby and three daughters—as a man who truly demonstrated the compassion of Christ to the poor.

On Feb. 15, 2011, President Obama posthumously awarded Dr. Little the 2010 Medal of Freedom, the country’s highest civilian honor, which Libby accepted on his behalf. In the ceremony, President Obama said that Dr. Little was “...a humanitarian in the truest sense of the word; a man who not only dedicated his life to others, but who lived that lesson of Scripture: ‘Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.’”

Students earning a Master of Arts in Education have prepared for K-12 leadership in public, private, mission, and/or home education. Graduates have completed a minimum of 38 units of rigorous coursework, with a minimum 3.0 GPA, as well as a thesis, project or comprehensive examination.

The School of Education also has the Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.). The M.A.T. is a practitioner’s degree, designed to teach advanced skills and understanding for classroom application. Graduates of this degree program complete 30-50 units, which may include teacher preparation coursework leading to a California preliminary teaching credential. The graduates must maintain a 3.0 cumulative GPA and successfully complete an Action Research Project as their capstone.

Degree candidates for the Doctor of Philosophy in Educational Studies and the Doctor of Education in Educational Studies have completed 48 and 45 semester units of coursework respectively with a GPA of 3.25 or higher, passed candidacy examinations and completed an approved dissertation. Doctoral faculty must recommend the student for conferral of the degree on the basis of academic stature and evidence of Christian life and character established during his or her course of study.

Degree candidates for the Doctor of Ministry have completed 36 semester units of coursework while obtaining a GPA of 3.0 or higher. Each degree candidate has submitted an acceptable doctoral thesis project.

Degree candidates for the Master of Theology have completed 26 semester units of coursework with a GPA of 3.25 or higher and have successfully passed the comprehensive examinations. Th.M. graduates should also manifest promise of usefulness in Christian ministry, exhibit exemplary and consistent Christian character, and evidence sound theological beliefs in accordance with the university’s doctrinal statement.

Degree candidates for the Master of Divinity have completed 96 to 98 semester units of coursework while obtaining a GPA of 2.5 or higher. Thesis optional. Degree candidates for the Master of Arts have completed 64 to 66 semester units of coursework while obtaining a GPA of 3.0 or higher, and have provided 300 hours of field ministry. Thesis optional.

Degree candidates for the Master of Arts in Christian Education have completed 60 semester units of coursework, with a GPA of 3.0 or higher, and have provided 300 hours of field ministry.

Degree candidates for the Master of Arts in Spiritual Formation and Soul Care have completed 66 semester units of coursework, with a GPA of 3.0 or higher.
Degree candidates for the Doctor of Philosophy in psychology and the Doctor of Psychology have completed 133 semester units of coursework in psychology, theology, integration, and research and have provided 3,000 to 4,000 hours of clinical service in counseling agencies across the country. Degree candidates for the M.A. in psychology have completed over 60 semester units of coursework in psychology, theology and integration, and have provided at least 350 hours of clinical service to schools or agencies in the area.

Degree candidates have completed internships or significant cross-cultural living or language experiences; foreign language proficiency requirements where applicable; and comprehensive exams on their core classes and area of specialization.

In addition to the required prerequisites, Master of Arts candidates completed 42 units (M.A. ICS); 32 units (M.A. TESOL); or 33 units (M.A. Applied Linguistics). Doctoral candidates entered with master’s degrees, and depending on their previous graduate classes, took 48 units of coursework and 12 units of dissertation research for the Ph.D. in Intercultural Education and Ph.D. in Intercultural Studies and 27 units of coursework and 8 units of dissertation research for the Doctor of Missiology. They conducted original research and defended dissertations on topics that contribute to the understanding and practice of education (Ph.D.) or missiology (D.Miss.) in a cultural context.

Degree candidates for the Master of Business Administration program have completed these distinct elements: prerequisite coursework, required for those without a business undergraduate degree (up to 15 units); a common core of graduate courses in management, marketing, finance, and accounting (21 units); a concentration of required theology courses (6 units); an integrative business ethics course (3 units); approved MBA electives (6 units); a project management capstone, and participation in the MBA Mentor Program. Graduates complete between 36 and 51 units in their program with a cumulative G.P.A. of 3.0 or above.

Degree candidates for the Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership represent working professionals who have completed coursework in leadership, communication, character and organizational development while continuing to serve full time in their career of choice.

Students who earn a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology have completed coursework emphasizing psychosocial development, integration, research, and foundational theories of psychological study. The BOLD Program is designed for the working adult who has returned to college after being away from the formal education setting for a number of years. Each student has completed the general education and biblical studies coursework required of all Biola baccalaureate graduates, completing between 65 and 80 units of coursework at Biola with the remaining required units transferred from other institutions.

Contemporary academic dress is clearly derived from the robes worn by teachers in European medieval universities and is based upon clerical garb, since the clergy were the first university teachers. Today, academic dress does not serve its original functions of providing warmth and/or distinguishing one’s religious order, but it does serve to identify the degree held, field of study and the university from which the wearers received their advanced degrees.

The American university robe comes in different shapes to identify its wearer as holder of the Bachelor, Master or Doctor degree (three velvet stripes on each sleeve further identify the doctoral robe) and is usually a closed gown in black. The foreign university robe is often open in the front and is frequently found in the Doctor version in a color other than black, such as red.

It is possible for the skilled observer to decipher the degree held from the robe and also to discern the subject area and the university of its wearer according to the mix of colors on the hood. The velvet band around the neck of the hood is frequently colored according to the scheme below to indicate academic area, and the lining of the hood appears with the official colors of the degree-granting institution.

Caps and tassels also vary. Most American and many foreign universities employ the black mortarboard, while some American and foreign universities are further identified with unusual shapes and types of caps. The tassels are usually black, although some universities vary there also, employing silver and gold.

Biola University traces its origins to the Bible Institute of Los Angeles established in 1908 by Lyman Stewart, founder and president of the Union Oil Company, and the Rev. T.C. Horton, two men of extraordinary vision and commitment to Christian higher education.

Dedicated to combating the moral decay and faithless liberalism of their day, Stewart and Horton established the Institute to educate and equip men and women with a relevant Christianity that would impact society at home and abroad. The Institute’s influence was felt along the entire Western Seaboard from Mexico to Canada and across the Pacific to China. By 1909, over 540 extension courses were sponsored by the Bible Institute.

The following decades produced immense growth, development and outreach. The school moved from a two-year to a four-year program offering degrees in theology, Christian education, and sacred music, and a one-year program in missionary medicine. By 1949, the Bible Institute had become a flourishing Bible College and in 1952 launched Talbot Theological Seminary to further serve the Christian community. In 1959, Biola received accreditation from the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

In the ensuing years, Biola College broadened its curricula in the arts, sciences, professions, and seminary offerings while maintaining its strong foundation in biblical studies. Throughout the 1960s and 1970s the program base further expanded, and in 1977 the Rosemead Graduate School of Professional Psychology was acquired.

Biola College became Biola University on July 1, 1981, composed of the School of Arts and Sciences, Rosemead School of Psychology, and Talbot School of Theology. The School of Intercultural Studies, with its outstanding program in world missions, was established in 1983 and renamed the Cook School of Intercultural Studies in 2009. The School of Business was added in 1993 and renamed the Crowell School of Business in 2007. The School of Professional Studies was added in 1994 and a seventh school, the School of Education was added in 2007.

Ranked by the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education as a Doctoral / Research-Intensive Institution, Biola University offers four undergraduate degrees in 40 undergraduate majors with more than 120 emphases, 17 master’s degrees and eight distinct doctoral degrees. With an outstanding faculty, the University has distinguished itself in scholarship and academic excellence.
Experiential programming is a hallmark of Biola University. National and international opportunities are available where students live and learn in diverse cultural settings. Some of the programs are University-based, while others are held in conjunction with the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities (CCCU). Domestic programs are offered in Washington D.C., Los Angeles, Berkeley, New York City, Utah and Colorado Springs. Students also have the opportunity to study internationally in Australia, Costa Rica, Egypt, Uganda, Oxford, London, Russia, New Zealand and Honduras. Educational programs are offered in Thailand, Lithuania and Ukraine, and exchange programs are maintained with schools in Korea and Japan.

Biola continues to affirm its commitment to creating significant academic programs that engage our community with some of the most influential thinkers of our time, while assuring the spiritual and moral development of our students. Examples include the Master of Arts degrees in Philosophy of Religion and Ethics, Christian Apologetics and Organizational Leadership.

Since 1908, Biola has stood as a beacon of hope for the intellectual, spiritual and moral growth of its students. As the only national university to require a Christian commitment of its faculty, students and staff, Biola University is building on its legacy of impacting the world for the Lord Jesus Christ.
The role of the Board of Trustees of Biola University is to serve as faithful stewards of the mission of the institution, and to serve God and Biola by lending the unique talents and experience of each individual as part of a team.

The responsibilities of the Board of Trustees include affirming Biola’s mission, upholding the Statement of Faith, overseeing long range strategic planning, and approving major policies and programs.
