Job Description for Coach of Clear Credential Candidate

Qualifications:

- Commitment to work with the Clear Credential Candidate for at least one semester.
- Must have taught for a minimum of three years and hold a California Clear Credential or its equivalent.
- Must possess skills in teaching English Language Learners, students with disabilities, gifted students, and those with other special needs – CLAD or BCLAD certification
- Familiarity with online teaching highly desired.
- Clear understanding of implementing current research-based instruction
- Must have sufficient people skills to professionally guide a new teacher toward excellent teaching.

Job Description:

- Meet weekly with their Clear Credential Candidate
- Using the online directions, guide the Clear Credential Candidate to complete a personal description of practice analysis and develop a personal professional development plan for technology use, moral integration, English Language Learners, Special Populations, and four of the domains outlined in the Description of Practice Form
- Assist the Clear Credential Candidate in identifying specific areas of strength and areas needing growth. Guide the candidate to determine multiple artifacts that would support a finding of growth from one level to a higher level of functioning as a teacher.
- Review the Clear Credential Candidates lesson plans, observe at least two lessons, and provide constructive feedback for future growth in a post-observation conference.
- May register to receive one unit of credit for supervision of the Clear Credential Candidate.

Compensation:

At the close of Biola’s semester, the coach will receive a stipend. All necessary documentation must be received before the check is issued. Please allow approximately two weeks at the end of the semester for the check to be mailed.